Sure what time? It's been a hell of a day and it's not even over. I still have to fire Margarita and I plan to tell him tonight. He won't be happy I'm gonna need some girl time. FML

6? Wait!!!! What??? You didn't tell him yet???? thought you were gonna tell him during your break today. What happened?

We went and ate but he wouldn't shut up about his new car. I tried getting a word in and he kept cutting me off. FWIW I don't care what he thinks.

You are a strong independent woman that can do this without the help of a man! You got this Hope! Msg me when its over.
